

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5.226 Ohio braille literacy week.

Effective: April 6, 2023

Legislation: House Bill 281

The first week of January is designated as "Ohio Braille Literacy Week" in honor of Louis Braille, the inventor of the Braille system used, in modified form, for printing, writing, and musical notation for persons who are blind, and who was born on January 4, 1809, and became blind from an accident at the age of three.
