

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5.28 Armed Services, Peace Officer, First Responder, and Dual Service Recognition Day.

Effective: February 15, 2016

Legislation: House Bill 244

The tenth day of November is designated as Armed Services, Peace Officer, First Responder, and Dual Service Recognition Day for individuals who have served, or who are serving, in the armed services and also have served, or who are serving, as a police officer or other first responder. These individuals, twice the servants, shall be recognized and honored on the tenth day of November.
