

Ohio Revised Code

Section 101.12 Presiding officer designated by party caucus.

Effective: September 17, 1973

Legislation: House Bill 994 - 110th General Assembly

In the event neither the speaker nor the speaker pro tempore, designated in section 101.11 of the Revised Code, is available to preside at the beginning of the first regular session, the members-elect shall designate by party caucus the person who shall preside over the organization of the house of representatives.
