

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1306.08 When electronic record or signature is attributable to person - effect.

Effective: September 14, 2000

Legislation: House Bill 488 - 123rd General Assembly

(A) An electronic record or electronic signature is attributable to a person if it was the act of the person. The act of the person may be shown in any manner, including a showing of the efficacy of any security procedure applied to determine the person to which the electronic record or electronic signature is attributable.

(B) The effect of an electronic record or electronic signature attributed to a person under division (A) of this section shall be determined from the context and surrounding circumstances at the time of its creation, execution, or adoption, including the parties' agreement, if any, and otherwise as provided by law.
