

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1306.13 Automated transaction - contracts - terms.

Effective: September 14, 2000

Legislation: House Bill 488 - 123rd General Assembly

In an automated transaction, all of the following apply:

(A) A contract may be formed by the interaction of electronic agents of the parties, even if no individual was aware of or reviewed the electronic agents' actions or the resulting terms and agreements.

(B) A contract may be formed by the interaction of an electronic agent and an individual, acting on the individual's own behalf or for another person, including by an interaction in which the individual performs actions that the individual is free to refuse to perform and that the individual knows or has reason to know will cause the electronic agent to complete the transaction or performance.

(C) The terms of the contract described in this section are determined by the substantive law applicable to the contract.
