

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1309.507 Effect of certain events on effectiveness of financing statement - UCC 9-507.

Effective: July 1, 2013

Legislation: Senate Bill 208 - 129th General Assembly

(A) A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition.

(B) Except as otherwise provided in division (C) of this section and section 1309.508 of the Revised Code, a financing statement is not rendered ineffective if, after the financing statement is filed, the information provided in the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under section 1309.506 of the Revised Code.

(C) If the name that a filed financing statement provides for a debtor becomes insufficient as the name of the debtor under division (A) of section 1309.503 of the Revised Code so that the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under section 1309.506 of the Revised Code:

(1) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four months after, the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading; and

(2) The financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, unless an amendment to the financing statement that renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four months after the financing statement became seriously misleading.
