

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2329.48 Relief of officer who levies upon and sells wrong property in good faith.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

---

When an officer to whom an execution issues on a judgment levies it in good faith upon property not subject to levy, sells it, applies the proceeds in satisfaction in whole or part of the judgment, and a recovery is had against him for its value, upon payment thereof, on motion before the court having control of the judgment and a showing that due notice of such motion was given to the defendant in the execution, such officer may have the satisfaction of such judgment vacated, and execution shall issue therefor for his use as if such levy and sale had not been made.
