

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2727.12 Procedure if injunction or restraining order is disobeyed.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

---

Upon being satisfied, by affidavit, of the breach of an injunction or restraining order, the court or judge who issued such injunction or order may issue an attachment against the guilty party who shall pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, for the use of the county, make immediate restitution to the party injured, and give further security to obey the injunction or restraining order. In default thereof, said party may be committed to close custody until he complies with such requirement, or is otherwise discharged.

---