

Ohio Revised Code

Section 307.06 Board of county commissioners may employ land appraisers.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

Whenever it is necessary for the board of county commissioners to determine the value of any real property owned by the county, or which it proposes to acquire by purchase, lease, or appropriation, the board may employ competent appraisers to advise it of the value of such property, or expert witnesses to testify thereto in an appropriation proceeding, and shall pay a reasonable compensation for such services.
