

Ohio Revised Code

Section 317.07 Delivery of seal, books, and records to successor.

Effective: January 30, 2014

Legislation: House Bill 72 - 130th General Assembly

Upon leaving office, each county recorder shall deliver to the county recorder's successor, the seal of office, all books, records, and other instruments of writing belonging to the office, and take the successor's receipt for them. In case of the county recorder's death, the county recorder's personal representatives shall deliver the seal, books, records, and instruments to the successor in office.
