

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3333.88 Alternative means for offering computer-based courses.

Effective: September 23, 2008

Legislation: House Bill 562 - 127th General Assembly

Nothing in sections 3333.81 to 3333.87 of the Revised Code, or in rules implementing those sections, shall prohibit a school district, community school, STEM school, or college or university from offering an interactive distance learning course or other distance learning course using a computer-based method through any means other than the clearinghouse established and maintained under those sections.
