

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3599.39 Second conviction under election laws.

Effective: December 9, 1997

Legislation: Senate Bill 116 - 122nd General Assembly

Any person convicted of a violation of any provision of Title XXXV of the Revised Code, who is again convicted of a violation of any such provision, whether such conviction is for the same offense or not, is on such second conviction guilty of a felony of the fourth degree, and in addition, shall be disfranchised.
