

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3599.43 Prohibitions concerning communication purporting to be from board of elections.

Effective: September 16, 1963

Legislation: House Bill 709 - 105th General Assembly

No person, not authorized by a board of elections, shall send or transmit to any other person any written or oral communication which purports to be a communication from a board of elections, or which reasonably construed appears to be a communication from such a board and which was intended to be so construed.

Whoever violates this section shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than six months or both.
