

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3905.39 Continuation of certificates and licenses.

Effective: September 15, 1965

Legislation: House Bill 154 - 106th General Assembly

Unless revoked by the superintendent of insurance or unless cancelled by him on written notice from the company, or the "attorney" designated under section 3931.01 of the Revised Code, all certificates of authority and licenses of companies, or such "attorneys" organized or admitted to do business under the laws relating to insurance companies, may, in the discretion of the superintendent, and at the request of the company or such "attorney" and the payment of the required fees and the furnishing of such information and supporting data as the superintendent may require, be continued in force past the thirtieth day of June next after they are issued and after the thirtieth day of June each succeeding year.
