

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3937.34 Notice of nonrenewal of policy - contents.

Effective: March 22, 2013

Legislation: House Bill 278 - 129th General Assembly

An insurer may refuse to renew an automobile insurance policy by mailing to the insured, at the insured's last known address appearing on the insurer's records, and at least thirty days prior to the date of expiration of the policy, a notice of the insurer's intention not to renew the policy. Such notice shall contain:

(A) The policy number;

(B) The date of the notice;

(C) The effective date of expiration;

(D) An explanation of the reason for nonrenewal and the information upon which it is based, or a statement that such explanation will be furnished to the insured in writing within five days after receipt of the insured's written request therefor to the insurer.

Upon compliance by the insurer with all requirements of this section, such automobile insurance policy expires on the expiration date stated in the policy and notice of intention not to renew.
