

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4123.324 Waiver or reduction of experience transfer.

Effective: March 23, 2016

Legislation: House Bill 259 - 131st General Assembly

(A) The administrator of workers' compensation shall adopt rules, for the purpose of encouraging economic development, that establish conditions under which any negative experience to be transferred to the account of an employer who is successor in interest under division (B) of section 4123.32 of the Revised Code may be reduced or waived.

(B) The administrator, in adopting rules under division (A) of this section, may not permit a waiver or reduction in experience transfer if the succession transaction is entered into for the purpose of escaping obligations under this chapter or Chapter 4121., 4127., or 4131. of the Revised Code.
