

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4712.13 Disclosing certificate of registration number.

Effective: September 26, 1996

Legislation: Senate Bill 293 - 121st General Assembly

A credit services organization shall disclose in any printed or published advertisement relating to the credit services organization's services, the number designated on the certificate of registration that is issued to the credit services organization by the division of financial institutions under sections 4712.01 to 4712.14 of the Revised Code. No credit services organization shall fail to comply with this section.
