

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4781.06 Delegation of powers - contracts.

Effective: January 21, 2018

Legislation: House Bill 49 - 132nd General Assembly

(A) The division of industrial compliance may delegate to the the Ohio construction industry licensing board any of its duties set forth in sections 4781.04 to 4781.15 of the Revised Code.

(B) The division may enter into a contract with the Ohio manufactured homes association or another entity to administer the dispute resolution program created pursuant to section 4781.04 of the Revised Code. The contract shall specify the terms for the administration of the program.

(C)(1) The division may enter into a contract with any private third party, municipal corporation, township, county, state agency, or the Ohio manufactured homes association, or any successor entity, to perform any of the division's functions set forth in sections 4781.04 to 4781.15 of the Revised Code that the division has not delegated to the Ohio construction industry licensing board. Each contract shall specify the compensation to be paid to the private third party, municipal corporation, township, county, state agency, or the Ohio manufactured homes association, or successor entity, for the performance of the division's functions.

(2) Except as provided in this division, the division shall not enter into any contract with any person or building department to accept and approve plans and specifications or to inspect manufactured housing foundations and the installation of manufactured housing unless that person or building department is certified pursuant to section 4781.07 of the Revised Code. The division shall require inspectors the Ohio department of health employs to obtain certification pursuant to section 4781.07 of the Revised Code.
