

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4969.10 Receiver must deposit money.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

---

When a railroad operated by a receiver is wholly within this state, all money which comes into his hands, whether from operating the railroad or otherwise, shall be kept and deposited in such place within this state as the court directs, until properly disbursed. If a part of the railroad lies in another state, the receiver shall deposit in this state at least such share of the funds in his hands as is proportioned to the value of the property of the railroad company within this state.
