

Ohio Revised Code

Section 505.106 Neglect or refuse to deposit property in possession of a person arrested.

Effective: September 29, 2011

Legislation: House Bill 153 - 129th General Assembly

---

No officer, or other member of an organized police department of a township, a township police district, a joint police district, or the office of a township constable shall neglect or refuse to deposit property taken or found by the officer or other member in possession of a person arrested. Any conviction for a violation of this section shall vacate the office of the person so convicted.

---