

Ohio Revised Code

Section 505.494 Subpoena power.

Effective: September 29, 2011

Legislation: House Bill 153 - 129th General Assembly

For the purpose of investigating charges filed pursuant to section 505.491 of the Revised Code, the board of township trustees or joint police district board may issue subpoenas or compulsory process to compel the attendance of persons and the production of books and papers before it and provide by resolution for exercising and enforcing this section.
