

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5162.65 Refunds and reconciliation fund.

Effective: September 29, 2017

Legislation: House Bill 49 - 132nd General Assembly

There is hereby created in the state treasury the refunds and reconciliation fund.

Money the department of medicaid receives from a refund or reconciliation shall be deposited into the refunds and reconciliation fund if the department does not know the appropriate fund for the money at the time the department receives the money or if the money is to go to another government entity. Money transferred from the department of job and family services under section 5101.074 of the Revised Code also shall be deposited into the refunds and reconciliation fund.

Money in the refunds and reconciliation fund, including money transferred from the department of job and family services, shall be transferred to the appropriate fund once the appropriate fund is identified or shall be transferred to another government entity, as appropriate.
