

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5555.32 Joint board may place portion of improvement wholly within one county.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1

A joint board of county commissioners has jurisdiction to provide for the construction of a portion a road improvement wholly within one county when it is necessary to avoid some place on the county line where the construction thereof would be unusually expensive or difficult.
