

Ohio Revised Code

Section 901.24 Legal adviser - furnishing of supplies.

Effective: December 4, 1973

Legislation: Senate Bill 174 - 110th General Assembly

The attorney general is the legal adviser of the department of agriculture in all matters relating to its powers and duties. The department of administrative services shall furnish to the department such stationery as it requires for the proper discharge of its duties and all blankbooks necessary to record its transactions.
