

Ohio Revised Code

Section 919.16 Possession as evidence of sale - exception.

Effective: October 2, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 281

Possession by any person of any horse carcass, dressed horse meat, or any horse meat food product constitutes prima-facie evidence that such commodity is for sale; provided, that this section does not apply to any person who has purchased dressed horse meat or horse meat food products for his personal consumption.
