

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4501:1-1-11 Failure of driver examination.

Effective: November 1, 2022

(A) If a person, who is making application for a temporary instruction permit identification card (TIPIC) pursuant to rule 4501:1-1-07 of the Administrative Code, fails the vision test prescribed in paragraph (A) or paragraph (B) of rule 4501:1-1-08 of the Administrative Code, no further examination shall be granted unless adequate evidence of sufficient visual improvement has been submitted.

(B) If a person fails any of the written tests prescribed in paragraph (A) or paragraph (B) of rule 4501:1-1-08 of the Administrative Code, the person may retake such test or tests additional times at his or her request. A person who fails any written test shall be required to wait at least one day prior to retaking such test.

(C) If a person fails either part of the road and maneuverability test prescribed in paragraph (A) of rule 4501:1-1-10 of the Administrative Code, or any of the three parts of the commercial driver's skills test prescribed in paragraph (A) of rule 4501:1-1-28 of the Administrative Code, the person may retake such test or tests at his request, up to the expiration of his TIPIC.

A person is not required to retake any test he or she has passed during the period that his or her TIPIC is valid.

A person who fails either part of the road and maneuverability test or any part of the commercial driver's skills test shall not be able to retake the test until the second calendar day after the failure of a test.

(D) A person, who is making application for a TIPIC pursuant to paragraph (B) of rule 4501:1-1-07 of the Administrative Code, shall be granted no more than one renewal per TIPIC issued.
