

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 123:1-37-02 Computation of pay supplements.

Effective: April 3, 2023

---

Additional pay supplements, unless otherwise specifically provided for in this chapter or division (D) of section 124.15 of the Revised Code will be computed for all eligible employees by using the minimum hourly rate of the pay range for the classification to which the employee is assigned. This rate will be known as the classification salary base. The amount of each supplement will be computed independently for each pay period, and will be computed to the nearest whole cent.

---