

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3361:10-17-02 Conduct and ethics: specific violations.

Effective: October 28, 1998

(A) Students: Students are expected to conform to those standards of conduct applicable to them as students. The standards of conduct and accompanying procedures are detailed in division 3361:40 of the Administrative Code. Violations of the university motor vehicle regulations by students are heard by student court. Violations of the state motor vehicle code will be heard by the Hamilton county municipal court.

(B) Employees: University employees are subject to university rules, regulations, policies and standards of conduct applicable to their respective positions and which provisions do not conflict with pertinent collective bargaining agreements. Other employee standards of conduct are detailed in the "Personnel Policies and Procedures Manual" and the "Staff Handbook." Violations of university motor vehicle regulation by faculty, staff and administrators are heard by the university parking appeals committee. Violations of the state motor vehicle code will be heard by the Hamilton county municipal court.
