

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4146-15-03 Contempt proceedings.

Effective: October 1, 1998

Any individual who refuses to testify or fails to appear at any proceeding in response to a subpoena duly issued and served, or fails to produce books, records, documents, or other written evidence in the individual's possession or under the individual's control as to any matter regarding which the individual may be lawfully interrogated, shall be subject to contempt proceedings as authorized in section 4141.17 of the Revised Code.
