

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4146-23-01 Who may appeal.

Effective: November 17, 2013

Any employer who claims to be adversely affected by a reconsidered decision or order issued by the director with respect to any determination or order affecting the liability of an employer to pay contributions or the amount of such contributions, determinations respecting applications for refunds of contributions, determinations respecting applications for classification of employment as seasonal employment and exceptions to charges of benefits to an employer's account, may file an appeal.
