

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4901:2-22-07 Advertising.

Effective: December 18, 2016

A towing service must include its certificate number on all written advertisements that could reasonably be used by a consumer to determine whether to hire the towing service. It is not required to be displayed on any promotional items, or when the towing services name is being used in connection with the sponsorship of an activity or event.
