

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 5501:1-1-03 Temporary commercial operating certificate for special events.

Effective: June 22, 2023

(A) During short-term special events such as fairs, exhibitions, fly-ins, splash-ins etc. a temporary commercial operating permit may be issued to the owner or entity that has legal control of the property for a specific period of time not to exceed twenty-one consecutive calendar days.

(B) In addition to those requirements contained in the division of aviation rules under rules 5501:1-1-04 to 5501:1-5-01 of the Administrative Code, adequate ground personnel and appropriate means of crowd control, including temporary markings and boundaries such as buoys or barricades, shall be present to ensure that the complete aircraft landing area and approach-departure path will be free and clear of all equipment, vehicles, watercraft, and pedestrians.
