

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 901:5-7-10 Labeling bulk storage.

Effective: May 1, 1995

---

(A) No person shall distribute commercial feed from a bulk storage facility unless such facility is labeled with the following information:

(1) Product name;

(2) Brand name, if any;

(3) Name and address of licensee;

(4) Guaranteed analysis;

(5) Name of each ingredient (recognized official name if available) used in the commercial feed, or in lieu thereof the collective terms for groups of ingredients which perform the same nutritional functions.

(B) All purchasers of bulk commercial feed shall be provided a label containing all of the foregoing information.

---