

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 102-1-04 Notice procedure for rule-making.

Effective: January 1, 2002

---

This rule is adopted in accordance with division (A) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code.

The commission, in giving public notice as to the adoption, amendment, or rescission of any rule required to be adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, must publish a notice, at least once, in the register of Ohio, and in such other publications as the commission may determine from time to time. The notice must appear at least thirty days prior to the date set for the hearing of the proposed action on any such rule. The notice must meet the requirements of division (A) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code.

---