

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 102-3-07 Advisory opinions; request for reconsideration by recipient of opinion.

Effective: February 11, 2017

(A) Any person who receives an opinion can request that the commission reconsider the matter.

(B) When requesting reconsideration, the person must provide:

(1) Facts that were not before the commission or staff when the original request was considered and that would affect the conclusion reached in the original opinion; or

(2) A reason why the holding in the original opinion should be reversed or revised.

(C) All requests for reconsideration will be reviewed by the commission in an open meeting.
