No more than four hours of training per officer or trooper may be offset pursuant to this paragraph.

- (H) The training described in paragraph (F) of this rule cannot be used by a peace officer, trooper, or law enforcement agency to offset any hands-on training required by the commission.

Factors which may be considered in granting or denying such requests include, but are not limited to, serious illness of the individual or an immediate family member, prolonged military service, or an unexpected shortage of manpower within the appointing agency. Based upon the emergency circumstances in any given case, the executive director may extend the required completion date. Extensions shall be for ninety days, absent a finding by the executive director that special circumstances exist for a longer extension.

- (J) The executive director shall either grant or deny the request for extension within thirty days after the date on which the request was received by the commission. The executive director shall send written notice of the decision to the appointing authority.
