

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 111:3-2-01 Definitions.

Effective: March 28, 2022

(A) "Oversight" is a form of corrective action, initiated and administered by the secretary of state's office, to which a board of elections may be subject as a result of a significant condition that exists at the board of elections.

(B) A "significant condition" is a violation or the inadequate administration of the requirements of federal and/or state law or a policy, procedure, or instruction issued by the secretary of state pertaining to the administration of elections or other duties of a board of elections.

(C) "Transitional oversight" is a form of oversight, initiated and administered by the secretary of state's office, to prevent errors in elections administration that could be, for example, a result of changes in the composition of a board of elections' members or employees.
