

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 122:25-1-01 Definitions.

Effective: January 28, 2014

- (A) Applicant means the authorized representative of the project in all matters related to any funds awarded through the local government efficiency program.
- (B) Application means the current local government efficiency program application form provided by the development services agency.
- (C) Application Period means the time period established by the director for which an application for a local government efficiency program award may be submitted by the applicant to the director.
- (D) Approved training program or consultant means those training programs or consultants approved by the department of administrative services for the local government efficiency program.
- (E) Awardee means the local government efficiency program award recipient.
- (F) Collaborative partner(s) means any political subdivision, nonprofit entity, or for-profit entity that is identified as a partner in the eligible applicants proposal for funding.
- (G) Council means the local government innovation council defined in section 189.03 of the Revised Code.
- (H) Director means the director of the development services agency (DSA) or his or her designee.
- (I) Political subdivision means a municipal corporation, township, county, school district, or other body corporate and politic responsible for governmental activities in a geographic area smaller than that of the state.
- (J) Program Policies means the most recent guidelines for the local government efficiency program approved by the council.

AUTHENTICATED,
OHIO LEGISLATIVE SERVICE
COMMISSION
DOCUMENT #267489
