

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 123:1-27-05 Employee recognition award.

Effective: January 18, 2009

---

(A) Selection of nominee. Each agency, office, board or commission will review each nomination submitted by any employee eligible to participate in the employee recognition program and select the most exemplary employee.

(B) Amount of award. Each agency, office, board or commission shall determine the type or amount of award to be granted. Awards may include, but are not limited to, additional leave, award ceremonies, plaques and certifications, or other provisions approved by the director.

(C) Award presentation. Each agency, office, board or commission will be responsible for program implementation and award presentation.

---