

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 123:1-37-02 Computation of pay supplements.

Effective: March 1, 2002

Additional pay supplements, unless otherwise specifically provided for in these rules or division 124.15(D) of the Revised Code shall be computed for all eligible employees by using the minimum hourly rate of the pay range for the classification to which the employee is assigned. This rate shall be known as the classification salary base. The amount of each supplement shall be computed independently for each pay period, and shall be computed to the nearest whole cent.
