

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 124-9-07 Witnesses.

Effective: March 1, 1993

- (A) All witnesses at any hearing before the board shall testify under oath or affirmation.
- (B) A witness may be accompanied and advised by legal counsel. Participation by counsel is limited to protection of his client's rights. Counsel for a non-party witness may neither examine nor cross-examine any witness.
- (C) Should a witness refuse to answer a question ruled proper at a hearing or disobey a subpoena, the board may initiate contempt proceedings.
