

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 1301:3-10-07 Expiration and renewal of license or government certification issued to out-of-state applicants.

Effective: July 12, 2024

---

(A) A license or government certification issued pursuant to section 4796.03 through 4796.05 of the Revised Code is valid for the same period of time as a license or government certification that was not issued under the chapter.

(B) A license or government certification issued pursuant to sections 4796.03 through 4796.05 of the Revised Code shall be renewed in the manner set forth under the law governing the profession, occupation, or occupational activity for which the applicant was issued a license or government certification.

---