

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 1301:3-12-04 Request for Investigation; Investigations; Notice of hearing.

Effective: September 6, 2024

(A) Upon receipt of a request for investigation submitted in accordance with section 4785.092 of the Revised Code, the elevator safety review board shall make an initial determination as to whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation or danger exists.

(B)

(1) If the board determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation or danger exists, the board shall conduct an investigation to determine whether a violation of Chapter 4785. of the Revised Code or rules promulgated thereunder has been committed. The board may request the divisions assistance with conducting an investigation.

(2) If the board determines that there are no reasonable grounds to believe that a violation or danger exists, the board shall notify the individual making the request in writing of that determination.

(C) If, following an investigation, the board determines that a violation of Chapter 4785. of the Revised Code or rules promulgated thereunder has been committed, the board shall provide notice to the alleged violator in accordance with section 4785.091 of the Revised Code.
