

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 1301:8-6-04 Stolen property.

Effective: October 14, 2024

A licensee shall post a conspicuous notice in the main lobby of the licensee's place of business. Such notice shall be in printed letters no less than one-half inch in height, shall be visible to all patrons, and shall read: "The licensee at this establishment has no right to retain property stolen from the true owner and the owner may recover any such property or its value from the licensee in an action at law."
