

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 1301:9-2-05 Financial statements.

Effective: July 8, 2024

(A) Each credit union member shall: .

(1) Be furnished, at least semiannually, a statement of accounts clearly reflecting all transactions involving the member's account during the previous accounting period.

(2) Be entitled to receive, within a reasonable time and upon request, a statement reflecting the member's current outstanding balances in the member's account.

(B) A credit union shall:

(1) Display, at all operating locations or on its website, copies of its current and previous month's financial statements in both a conspicuous and available manner, so as to be accessible for inspection by all members.

(2) Provide a physical copy of the credit union's current and previous month's financial statements to a member upon request.
