

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 1509-1-23 Decisions of the commission.

Effective: January 24, 2022

(A) If, upon completion of an evidentiary hearing, the commission finds that the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, it shall make a written decision affirming the order appealed from. If the commission finds that the order appealed from was unreasonable or unlawful, it shall make a written decision vacating the order appealed from, and making the order that it finds the chief should have made or remanding the matter to the chief for further proceedings.

(B) All decisions of the commission shall incorporate:

(1) Findings of fact;

(2) Conclusions of law; and

(3) An order granting or denying relief.

(C) When a final order of the commission is issued, the commission shall give notice thereof by certified mail to all parties to the proceeding.

(1) A party shall ensure that the commission has its current address for the purpose of receiving the final order of the commission.

(2) If a party is represented by counsel, notice of the final order of the commission may also be given to the party's counsel of record.

(D) The decision of the commission is final unless vacated or otherwise amended by the courts in an appeal as provided for in section 1509.37 of the Revised Code.
