

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3302-24-29 Temporary military duty license.

Effective: August 21, 2025

(A) The state board of education issues a three-year temporary military duty license, valid in a category, type, and level for which the state board of education issues credentials to an individual who:

(1) Is deemed to be of good moral character; and

(2) Meets the requirements set forth in section 4743.041 of the Revised Code.

(B) A license issued under this rule is valid only in the category, type, and level that is substantively comparable to the applicant's valid out-of-state license or certificate and experience pursuant to section 4743.041 of the Revised Code. A temporary military duty license may only be issued in a category, type, and level for which the state board of education already issues a credential.

(C) The temporary military duty license may be renewed one time, provided the applicant meets the requirements set forth in section 4743.041 of the Revised Code at the time of renewal.

(D) Provided the individual has completed all requirements for the applicable license, an individual issued a license under this rule may also apply for and be issued a resident educator license or professional educator license issued under section 3319.22 of the Revised Code, or a license in any other category, type, and level issued by the state board of education.
