

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3309-1-48 Effect of applicant's death on retirement application.

Effective: April 6, 2017

If a member has filed a proper and complete application for a retirement allowance and dies subsequent to the established effective date of the retirement, whatever benefits may be due the member's beneficiaries will be determined by the plan of payment selected by the member on the application forms for retirement.
