the use of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol or a description of drug and alcohol counseling, treatment, rehabilitation, or re-entry programs that are available to employees or students, please consult Miami's annual publication, "your right to know."

(C) Medical and/or recreational marijuana

As a recipient of federal funding, such as student financial aid and federal grants and contracts for research, Miami University is required to follow federal law including the Safe and Drug Free Schools and Communities Act and the Drug Free Workplace Act. In order to comply with these laws, Miami University prohibits the manufacture, dispensation, possession, use, or distribution of marijuana in any form on any university-owned property, in the conduct of university business or as part of any university activity. On September 8, 2016, Ohio law permitted certain activities related to the possession and use of medical marijuana. On December 7, 2023, Ohio law permitted certain activities related to the possession and use of recreational marijuana. However, using and possessing marijuana continues to be prohibited by and a violation of university policy and remains a crime under federal law.

This prohibition applies even when the possession and use would be legal under the laws of the state of Ohio. As a result, no person is permitted to use marijuana on campus, in the conduct of university business or as part of any university activity, including those with medical marijuana prescription/cards. Sanctions for students and employees who are found to be in possession of or using marijuana include suspension, dismissal and/or termination of employment.

This prohibition does not extend to research related to marijuana that is approved by:

- (1) The agency for health care research and quality;
- (2) The national institutes of health;
- (3) The national academy of sciences;
- (4) The centers for medicare and medicaid services;

- (5) The United States department of defense;
- (6) The centers for disease control and prevention;
- (7) The United States department of veterans affairs;
- (8) The drug enforcement administration;
- (9) The food and drug administration;
- (10) Any board recognized by the national institutes of health for the purpose of evaluating the medical value of health care services.

The university will accommodate students who are legally authorized Ohio medical marijuana users. These students may submit a letter asking to be released from their university housing and dining obligations to the dean of students at deanofstudents@miamioh.edu.
