

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3341-2-24 Organizational responsibility.

Effective: October 8, 2018

(A) Policy statement and purpose

The purpose is to articulate that recognized student organizations may be held accountable for violations of the code of student conduct when a written allegation is received by the office of the dean of students.

(B) Policy

An incident report may be filed against a recognized student (RSO) organization under the code of student conduct. An organization RSO and its members may be held collectively and individually responsible for violations of the code by those associated with the organizations, including guests and alumni of the organization. When an incident report is filed naming an organization RSO as respondent/responding party, the presiding officer and/or students affiliated with the group shall be required to participate in meetings and hearings as representatives of the group RSO.
